

INTERPARADIGMAS
THE JOURNAL OF CONSCIENIOLOGY'S DOCTORS

Interparadigmas is a scientific journal, with printed and electronic versions, annually published by doctors who are volunteer researchers on Conscienciology. The main intention of the journal is to promote self-discernment, through interparadigmatic dialogues between the consciential paradigm and other paradigms, aiming at the expansion of the scientific approaches on consciousness.

CALL FOR PAPERS - Number 7 - 2019

I. Theme

SELF-PARADIGMATIC TRANSITION

The seventh number of Interparadigmas intends to deal with the personal paradigm transition process or self-paradigmatic transition.

Self-paradigmatic transition is the continuous process of change between individual and cognitive, mentalsomatic systems of reference, which are analysable in distinct phases.

This is about thematizing the association of individual human cognition to one or more paradigms and its respective process of evolutive transition.

We invite submissions of papers exploring this process from the subjective viewpoint, considering the social, historical and epistemological influences, among others.
